† = displaced American athlete

From 1925 to 1940 athletes were selected to a Collegiate Honor Roll based on their season of competition. In 1941 All American College Team selections were introduced and from 1941 to 1962 the two lists (Honor Roll & All American) would recognize collegiate track athletes. The Honor Roll selections would cease after 1962 in favor of the All American selections. It would appear that in 1975 All-American status would no longer be a selection process by the NCAA Rules Committee, but be determined by one's finish at the NCAA Championship Meet.
